NEXT MEETING

January 16, 2019 9:30 AM

Redmond Expo Center (Fair Grounds)

3800 Airport Way, Redmond

97 Exit Yew from South /Veterans Way from North

We will be trying out a NEW meeting place! Guild Members will be Greeting you through the Main entrance to the first building on your right the Middle Sister (during the Fair this is the vendors building— Not South sister where our display was). You will be guided to the first room on your left. Regular and Handicap parking is in front of the Main entrance. The program will be presented by Patty Huffer. It is on Finishing Techniques for your Weaving Projects. Bring your Items to be finished, Questions, Books to share, and Items with special ways of finishing. Sharing gives us all new ideas. There will be no refreshments. Bring your own coffee or water (and maybe a snack).

Patty Lieuallen will be presenting a Fiber Works Tutorial following the regular meeting. Bring a sack lunch and a Laptop if you have the program on it or maybe anyway. Contact Patty L. if you have questions.

HOLIDAY POTLUCK & MEETING

Dean opened the meeting and welcomed new members & guests

Treasurer's Report:

Dean thanked Teri for all her hard work on the November Sale.

The new membership forms are available. Dues are due Jan. 1. Dues are $25 for an individual and $35 for a family.

Checking: $2228.86 Savings(Marsha Fund): $3069.28

Checking and savings each received $700 each from the retreat fund.

Fall Sale report: Linda Gettmann

$4976 in revenue from 18 sellers. After expenses the guild profit was $776.49 (See detailed report attached to hard copy of minutes).

Lindsay Wiseman will be the sales chair next year.

Linda Gettmann reserved the Environmental Center for next year Nov. 2nd.

Old Business:

Election of Vice Presidents Nominated: Stephanie Stanley and Carrie Gordon. Caroline Jones moved to accept these nominations. Patty Huffer seconded. Nominations approved.

Introduction of committee chairs:

Lindsay Wiseman - Show & Sales

Catherine Cooley - Outreach

Sandy Prock reminded us that Snow Diamond Alpaca is pen Saturdays and Sundays through Christmas. Contact them if you would like to demonstrate. Nov. 18th is covered. They will give a portion of an alpaca fleece to those who demonstrate. Contact Sandy Prock to get information.

Meeting location

Dean explained the change of location for the January and February Wednesday guild meeting. The options are to stay at Highland Baptist Church and use the gym and change the meeting day to Tuesday or move to the Deschutes County Expo Center. After discussion, it was decided to meet at the Expo Center in January and February. You can bring your own water, coffee or snack. No other food or beverage will be served. After the January meeting, Linda Gettmann will send out a survey monkey to get feedback about the change of location.

After the January guild meeting, Patty Lieuallen will facilitate a Fiberworks weaving program study. Bring your laptops.

The Spinning group will also meet after the January meeting.

COSW Holiday Show & Sale, 2018

The sale was a success—we had 18 sellers and the total sold was almost $5,000, about the same as last year. With this new format we made $776 for the guild treasury. Thanks to all who participated and helped out, the room looked wonderful with all our fiber art creations. What a talented group.
